for them, before they fully decide to continue. This might be helpful to know when inviting others, that they have an easy opt out if it's really not for them. We are also looking for some general helpers who might be able to help each week with serving and cleaning up. Talk to Trev or Francis if interested.

Alpha Course

On Monday May 21st Alpha is beginning, the first week is an introductory night. Its purpose is for people to be able to come and see if Alpha is something that is right

Seniors Afternoon

Friday 25th May at 2pm. Speakers - Norm and Karen Roberts.

If you are over 50 and you enjoy fellowship, prayer, singing, a delicious afternoon tea, and hearing guest speakers, then come along.

Belgrave Heights Mens' Convention

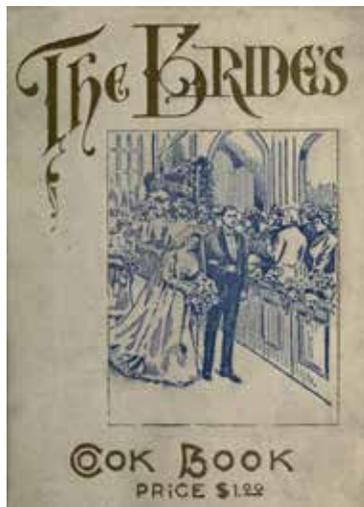

Each year a group of men from our church go down to Belgrave together to attend the Mens' Convention. We stay over on Friday night so that we can attend all the meetings. It is both a great time of fellowship with each other as well as an enormous boost to our spiritual welfare.

Will you join us this year?

We will share car space and leave Bendigo at 3pm on Friday 25 May and return late Saturday afternoon.

If you would like to register your interest in coming and have some help to identify accommodation options in the Belgrave area, contact Andrei Cheng E: andrei.cheng@aapt.net.au

Bride's Recipe Book

Caritas Ladies are putting together a recipe book for Jon Harris and Eilannin Black who are getting married on 22nd September 2018.

We would love for you to provide a recipe or words of wisdom for the book.

Please collect a card to put your recipe on from the table in the Church Foyer.

Church and Mission

PARISH - Pray for our new sermon series on John's gospel. We ask that we will continue to pursue the unity that Jesus prays for his disciples.

PARISH – Thank you for the parish council and wardens, may they continue to have all the insight needed to govern our parish in physical, logistical and spiritual ways.

PARISH – We ask that the children's and youth ministry leaders will be encouraged to continue this essential and important ministry. May you give them joy as they lead.

PARISH – Pray that this week God will make us aware if there is someone we need to forgive.

DIOCESE – We thank you for the members of the Diocesan Executive who give their time and energy in structural oversight for our Diocese. Help them to see clearly the information before them and to make wise and godly decisions.

DIOCESE – We pray that God will continue to change our culture and structures to ensure our churches are safe for all.

MISSION – Link Missionary – We Pray for S as she settles in S E A, give her humility and patience as she learns the new language and cultural norms.

PERSECUTED CHURCH – MALAYSIA – Converting to Christianity is illegal for Malay Muslims, and they may be sent to an Islamic purification centre, or even disappear. All children are forced to attend Islamic education at all levels, from nursery schools to university. Christians are often denied access to water and electricity, and they have to pay extra taxes. Pray for secret believers, that they might find the strength to remain faithful, pray also for those who are abducted or persecuted.

World

SOUTH AND NORTH KOREA – We pray that this region might begin to flourish and have a time of peace and freedom for all its people. We join with the prayers of its native Christians, that North Korea would be transformed.

IRAN – Pray that the tension with America will not escalate and become out of control.

D R CONGO – We Pray that any Ebola outbreak would be contained quickly.

KENYA – Pray that those displaced by the recent floods would find a safe place to reside until the water subsides.

LATIN AMERICA – We pray that those who are human trafficking would be caught and that any people currently held against their will to find freedom.

HAWAII – Pray that the people will be kept safe from the toxic gases coming from the Kilauea volcano.

Australia and Local Community

Pray for all levels of government to lead with wisdom, integrity and fairness, for the good of all (this week we focus on the state level, and pray for the Premier Daniel Andrews and our local members –Jacinta Allan and Maree Edwards)

Give thanks for mothers and the blessing that they are to the world. Pray for those whose whom Mother's day is particularly difficult.

Pray for the broken hearted to come to the throne of God's grace to heal and set free those in bondage.

Pray for young people to have a healthy self-worth and to be resistant to unrealistic expectations promoted by social media.

We pray for our nation as we process the latest Federal Budget, help us to continue to seek what is good and just and fair. We pray that the plight of the world's neediest will not be forgotten at the federal level.

We give thanks for the recent rain and pray for our farmers and water catchments, particularly for those farmers who are needing to sow winter crops.

Sick and in Need

Keith Thompson, Peter Peterson, Marcia Taylor, Helen Chick and any others known to us.
